

MFCC is represents a sound's short-term power spectrum as a set of coefficients returns the mel- frequency cepstral coefficients from audio input the function extracts a vector included delta and delta-delta of it delta and delta-delta is temporal that capture rate change of MFCC use it as an example to classify male and female voices.